

The Litany of Thanksgiving

Priest: Let us attend! Having partaken of the divine, holy, most pure, immortal, heavenly, life-creating, and awesome Mysteries of Christ, let us worthily give thanks unto the Lord.

Priest: Help us, save us, have mercy on us, and keep us, O God, by Thy grace.

Priest: Asking that the whole day may be perfect, holy, peaceful, and sinless, let us commend ourselves and each other, and all our life unto Christ our God.

Exclamation

For Thou art our sanctification, and unto Thee we ascribe glory: to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit, now and ever, and unto ages of ages.

Let us depart in peace.

Priest: Let us pray to the Lord.

THE PRAYER BEHIND THE AMBON

John Chrysostom

PRIEST: O Lord, Who blestest those who bless Thee and sanctifiest those who put their trust in Thee: Save Thy people, and bless Thine inheritance, preserve the fullness of Thy Church, sanctify those who love the beauty of Thy house; glorify them in recompense by Thy divine power, and forsake us not who hope on Thee. Give peace to Thy world, to Thy churches, to the priests, to all civil authorities, to our armed forces and to all Thy people, for every good and perfect gift is from above and cometh down from Thee, the Father of lights, and unto Thee we ascribe glory, thanksgiving and worship, to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit, now and ever and unto ages of ages.

Priest: Let us pray to the Lord.

People:

Priest: The blessing of the Lord and His mercy come upon you through His grace and love towards man, always, now and ever, and unto ages of ages.

People:

Priest: Glory to the Thee, O Christ our God and our hope, glory to Thee.
